Crowe Praises Big Opportunity With Proposed College

in speaking of the proposed college for Memphis, Dr. William Crowe, re-tiring paster of idlowed Presbyterian church, made the following statement to a representative of The News Scimi-church, made the following statement to a representative of the News Scimitar:

"It would be entirely possible for any individuals or group of individuals by a tremendous outlay of money to creek a mass of bricks and mother and exit a college. However, to call such a plant a college however, to call such a plant a college would be an unmerited fille. Not only if has become an in all ution surched by the love and sacrifice, the tol, prayer and tears of the many burdreds who an the passage of years have consecrated its traditions and hallowed its memory can it truly be called a college. "In transferring Southwestern Prespection university Memphis will inherit an institution already enshrined in the hearts of many thousands. No new and untried experiment, but eminently successful within its scope, possessed a heritage of honor and respect, surrounded by a brilliant galaxy of devoted sons, it will bring to Memphis a record of a half-century of service to humanity and the highest ideals in American educational history. No only will Southwestern Presbyterian university bring to Memphis a wealth of experience and the traditions of many years, but she will bring to Memphis a wealth of experience and the traditions of many years, but she will bring a faculty of proved ability, men who have successfully worked together in harmonitous efficiency and who have developed the spirit of teamwork, impossible to secure from men, however good individually who have not had this exceedingly important advantage.

"Southwestern Presbyterian university is the official Presbyterian college for men in the states of Alabama. Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee, and it is the only college for men controlled by the Nouthern Presbyterian college for men in the states of Alabama. Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee, and it is the only college for men controlled by the Nouthern Presbyterian college for men in the states of Alabama. Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee, and it is the only college for men controlled by the Southern Presbyteri fold devotion to this institution as Their ful devotion to this institution as Their alma mater.

"While it is true that students of every faith have been and are welcome into the privileges of this institution, it is natural to assume that it holds an undisputed prior lien of every Presbyterian boy ready to enter college each year in four Southern states. Even these last, which form only a portion of its student body would afford no mean clientele, for the Presbyterians alone in these states exist in large numbers. The value of good will, that intangible asset of customers satisfied through years of fair dealing, is appreciated by all far-seeing men of affairs, and form an integral part of every established enterprise. Southwestern is endowed with this subtle and highly prized asset, gained through more than four decades of honorable and eminently satisfactory service. She will bring with her this unpurchasable treasure. Memphis can not afford to miss this great opportunity."

War To Finish Or Peace, Polish Issue

known as the Cordill Packett com-pany, which operates the steamer Sen-ator Cordill in the river freight trade-between Pittsburgh and Huntington, W. ater Cordill in the river freight trade between Pittsburgh and Huntington, W. Va., held an organization meeting yes-terday on the independent wharfest at the foot of Wood street. The com-pany is incorporated under the laws of Ohio and it was announced at the meet-ing that all the stock amounting to $50,000 had been sold. The stockholders declared themselves well pleased with the boat, and the amount of business she is handling between here and lower river points. The boat cleared the local harbor for Huntington yesterday afternoon with a good cargo of freight and a fair passenger list on board. It is due to arrive here again next A Pittsburgh dispatch received by the publicity committee of the $1,500,000 river transportation committee of the Chamber of Commerce and made public Friday tells of the financial success which has met the Senator Cordill, until a few years ago in the packet trade between Vicksburg and Natchez, and now plying between Pittsburgh and Huntingdon, W. Va.

The Senator Cordill was one of the finest boats ever operated on the lower Mississippi river. The boat was sold recently to a Pittsburgh company, and is now making big money for her new owners, being loaded heavily with freight and passengers every trip.

Increasing business of the Senator Cordill is shown by this report from the Pittsburgh Times-Gazette, of recent date:

Tuesday.
"The total tonnage carried over th three rivers during the month of July was the heaviest of the year, accord-ing to figures compiled by the United States engineer's office. The report
